In accordance with the PCPI Conflict of Interest Policy, Participants must verbally, or by e-mail if the vote is by e-mail, disclose to PCPI any material interest that would bear on the deliberation of a specific agenda item prior to participating in the deliberation. In the case a Participant has a material interest, a majority of members of the relevant Committee or task force may vote to place reasonable limitations on the Participant's participation in deliberations regarding the specific agenda item. In addition, if a Participant or Participant's member(s) has a material interest in a specific agenda item, the Participant must recuse himself or herself from voting on the specific agenda item.

I agree that:

- (i) I will not disclose or use confidential or proprietary information relating to PCPI outside of PCPI activities. I also will not use such information for personal profit or advantage or for profit or advantage of any other person or entity.
- (ii) I will not divert for myself or for any other person or entity any business opportunity I know to be available to PCPI.
- (iii) I will not use PCPI's name or logos or my affiliation with PCPI in a manner that would incorrectly imply PCPI endorsement of another person's or entity's product or service.
- (iv) I acknowledge by my signature below that the foregoing is complete and accurate and that I will update this information as necessary for completeness.
- (v) I have read and will comply with the PCPI Foundation Conflict of Interest Policy.
