

TLA Board of Directors Meeting Minutes
 Madison Branch
 Nashville Public Library
 Madison, Tennessee
 August 26, 2017

Meeting was called to order at 10:34 a.m.
President Jeffie Nicholson welcomed everyone and invited those present to introduce themselves; Executive Director Annelle Huggins announced the names of those in attendance online via Go-To-Meeting.
Minutes from the June 9th Board of Directors meeting were approved.
Annelle presented the Executive Director and Financial Reports; for the financial reports, she included a 5-year financial history and called our attention to several items:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Decline in membership dues revenue; this revenue does not cover our expenses; • Special events income (mostly from the annual conference) fluctuates, but sustains the organization; • Savings account balances include scholarship funds and support for the Cheney and Taylor awards; • CDs support one year of operating expenses (as a fail-safe), along with maintenance of a $50k balance in the checking account at the end of the fiscal year; • TLA no longer prepares an annual budget due to a declining stable income; • We now have a “request funds as you need them” approach which requires a written statement of the amount required and a description of what the funds will be used for; submit via email to Annelle for review by the Executive Committee; turnaround is usually 48-72 hours; • Questions: (1) Is the operating budget separate from conference budget? No, it is all in the same checking account. (2) If someone wants to make a request do they need to do so by a certain date? No, requests are accepted throughout the year.
Question: Do we record the meeting so we can refer back to it? Yes, Annelle can do that.

DISCUSSIONS:

Honors and Awards Committee: (1) Representing the Honors and Awards Committee and the School Libraries Section, respectively, Jill Rael and Erika Long requested clarification on the wording in the Procedures Manual regarding meals; Erika noted that it should be clearly stated that if you are receiving an award, you will receive your meal complimentary; Erika made the motion that we include that language and Anne Whitver seconded; all were in favor; approved; (2) Jill also brought up the question of whether an individual or group win could win the same award more than once, and if so, if there is a set time period before a previous winner could be nominated again; Annelle said for those awards given by specific committees and sections, it would be up to them to change the policy on that; Jill said she would look into it.

Related Questions:

(1) Could we open the voting on awards to the full TLA membership? Annelle said yes, but if voting for officers in our last election is any indication, they won't vote.

(2) What will happen with the Intellectual Freedom Award if Parnassus Books doesn't fund it? It is likely that Parnassus will continue to fund the award if we get a nominee but, if not, TLA could sponsor it again.

TASL: Is willing to give TLA a free booth at their conference next month; Erika is taking advantage of this; she reached out to Jeffie and she agreed to come to talk about membership; Erika is also interested in having people share information regarding collaborations with school librarians in different areas like public and academic libraries; anyone who would like to come is more than welcome; TLA will be there Friday, September 29th at the Murfreesboro Embassy Suites; Annelle said she would send some TLA items to Erika for giveaways at the booth.

Ruth Kinnersley reported for the Task Force on Re-structuring that they are working through the recommendations they received and will have the information complete soon; the final discussion on the restructuring will be at the December board meeting; please send any additional changes to her, Heather Lanier, or Richard Groves.

Jeffie brought two discussion items from members: (1) she was asked about us issuing a statement of support for the Virginia Library Association after the events in Charlottesville; it was noted that ALA's statement was beautifully written; a statement from us would be appropriate since there is a white supremacy group in Knoxville on UT's campus; Annelle suggested that we can say that we are in support of ALA's statement and link to it; Annelle, in her role as a TLA member, made the motion and President-Elect Heather Lanier seconded; all were in favor; approved; Jeffie will craft it and send it to the Executive Board for approval; then Public Relations Committee Co-chair Sharon Parente will be sure it gets out and send it as press release; (2) the other query Jeffie had was from a member regarding TLA support of the ALA Emerging Leaders Program; she thinks we have someone for 2017 but she hasn't approached us for support; Annelle suggested that we investigate what is required of a chapter that supports an Emerging Leader and then we can proceed from there.

Heather had an email discussion about finding a description of the Diversity Committee; she has the one from Illinois as an example; Jeffie noted that Tennessee Chapter Councilor Courtney Fuson's report from ALA includes their information on equity, diversity, and inclusion; Courtney said that she would also share that information on the listserv.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

From Annelle: The next meeting on December 9th will be via Go-To-Meeting; there are only 24 seats available, so we will have group locations in Nashville, Knoxville, and Memphis, among others; this is an important meeting because the updated bylaws draft will be presented and it has to be voted on by the full membership in order to be implemented on July 1st 2018; she hopes to have the draft ready for us to review by the first of November.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:34 a.m.

Respectfully Submitted,
Christina Chester-Fangman
