

18 March 2016

The Intellectual Freedom Committee is excited to be hosting conference sessions on Wikipedia, and non-traditional reference sources, in addition to our annual business meeting.

We are not so excited that there were no nominees for the 2015 TLA Parnassus Books Intellectual Freedom Award.

In better news, Alison Macrina or Nima Fatemi from Library Freedom Project have tentatively agreed to appear as the Intellectual Freedom Luncheon speaker at TLA Conference 2017.

Humbly submitted,
Bryan Jones
