Cody Behles resigned as the chair of the Library Technologies Roundtable on November 30th due to a change in jobs. Jodie Gambill and Courtney Fuson agreed to co-chair the roundtable until the end of Cody's term.

Jodie and Courtney are still working out the intended direction of the roundtable and will be in communication with the members after the conference to begin moving the roundtable forward.

Courtney will be at the conference and hopes to connect with the roundtable members during the conference.
