

Special Libraries Section Report

December 5th, 2015

TLA Board Meeting

- No Action Items.
- The Special Libraries Section submitted a proposal for the upcoming TLA Annual Conference in Kingsport. This will be a discussion panel on careers in special libraries; co-presenters had not been secured at the time of the proposal's submission, but now there are three panelists that have agreed to participate.
- Presentation Summary: Thursday, 1:10 – 2:00 pm in Salon 3

Can you imagine what goes on in special libraries?

Co- Presenters: None listed

Presentation summary: For those who don't work in special libraries, they can be a bit of a mystery. This panel discussion will bring together librarians from a variety of special libraries to provide their unique perspectives. Learn how the panelists came to work in special libraries, what an average day is like, and the variety of work involved in special libraries. Bring your questions!
