

Scott Carley
Certified Vistage Speaker and Executive Business Coach

Scott is the Change Energizer. People who want change in their organization, executive leadership team or in their own life seek Scott out. Scott is an expert in casting vision, repairing fractured teamwork and priority management. He is a natural entertainer and story teller that captures the imagination of his audiences. His quick humor and energy are contagious.

Scott is a tenured VISTAGE Speaker and Executive Business Coach. He is Program Chair and on the board of the Austin National Speakers Association. From 2010-2015 Scott took his BNI Region of 45 chapters to the top

2% internationally in growth, retention and referral revenue ($36 million annually). Scott pastored a thriving congregation with his leadership team for 10 years and built a 13,000 sq ft worship facility on 5 acres in the 90s. He is the President of his consulting group; Carley's Growth Dynamic Consulting, LLC.

Scott has been based out of Austin since 2003. He enjoys live music, motorcycle riding in the Texas hill country and grilling steak and fish. He was married on Thanksgiving Day 2015 to his lovely bride, Carol. Now they have become the Magnificent Seven. Together they have raised 4 daughters and a son!