

Daniel J. Decker - Chief Operating Officer

Dan Decker has been a part of the US travel industry for 32 years.

In August 2016, he became Chief Operating Officer for the Texas Travel Industry Association (TTIA) focusing on growth strategy management.

In February 2016 Dan retired as President of SeaWorld® and Aquatica™ in San Antonio a role he held for 12 years. During his 26 year SeaWorld / Anheuser-Busch career he also served as the Corporate Director of Operations and Executive Assistant to the president and chairman of the board, he was General Manager of Grant's Farm, the Busch Family ancestral home located in St. Louis, Missouri and he held leadership positions in human resources, park operations and culinary operations at SeaWorld San Diego.

Prior to his SeaWorld / Anheuser-Busch career, Dan was a leader in front office and guest service operations for resort hotel's in Santa Fe, New Mexico, Jackson Hole, Wyoming and San Diego, California.

Dan and his wife Denise have called Texas their home for more than 13 years and have three children. They share a great passion for traveling across Texas for activities, events and relaxation.