

DIRECTIONS FOR OBTAINING CME CERTIFICATE

The following instructions will allow you to complete an online evaluation, as well as obtain your Certificates for CME, RLI, SAMs, and ethics:

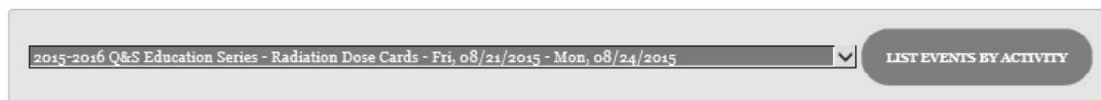

- You will receive an email from scook@acr.org within one week from the last day of the course with information on the link and how to obtain credit.
- Log in to www.highmarksce.com/acr/claimcredit/. Log in using your ACR username and password (different from TRS). If you are a non-member of ACR, please use the first letter of your first name and your last name (i.e, Joe Smith is jsmith) as your Username. You will automatically need to change your password.
- Please check under the "My Account" tab that your information is correct. You may need to check the box that states you consent to having your information collected via this form. (This is a GDPR requirement.)
- Click on "My Activities" Tab in the top right hand corner of the screen:

- Click on the dropdown next to "List Events by Activity" to find the activity you wish to claim credit for. Click on the orange "list events" button once selected.

MY ACTIVITIES

Manage your credit hours. You can add, view or print certificates from the ACR meetings you attended. Before printing the certificate you must complete the individual session evaluations first followed by the overall meeting evaluation.

- Check the "Add" box for all activities that you participated in during the meeting.
- Click the "Claim Session" button at the bottom of the page to finalize.
