BYLAWS
TEXAS RADIOLOGICAL SOCIETY
A CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN COLLEGE OF RADIOLOGY
Revised February 24, 2022

ARTICLE 1 – NAME
The name of this organization shall be the Texas Radiological Society (“TRS” or “Texas Chapter”), which is the Texas Chapter of the American College of Radiology (“ACR” or “College”).

ARTICLE 2 – PURPOSE / MISSION
The purpose of the TRS, as a chapter of the ACR, shall be to serve the specialty of radiology in Texas by advancing the science, education and practice of radiology; improve radiologic service to patients and the medical community; foster closer fellowship among radiologists; address the economics of radiology; and establish and maintain high medical and ethical standards.

ARTICLE 3 – AFFILIATION
The TRS is an affiliate of the ACR. The Code of Ethics of the ACR, as published in the College's most recent bylaws, is expressly adopted as the code of ethics of the TRS.

ARTICLE 4 – MEMBERSHIP

4.1 Classes of Membership
The TRS shall have the following six classes of membership:
   a. Active Members;
   b. Members in Training;
   c. Honorary Members;
   d. Retired Members;
   e. Inactive Members; and
   f. Allied Health Members

4.2 Membership Qualifications and Member Rights
a. Active Members. An Active Member shall:
   1. be a physician who has been certified or is board eligible in a radiological discipline, including nuclear medicine, by the American Board of Radiology (ABR), the American Osteopathic Board of Radiology (AOBR), the American Board of Nuclear Medicine (ABNM), the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada (the Royal College), or the College des medecins du Quebec (CMQ); or
   2. be a Medical Physicist who is certified or considered the equivalent of certified by the ABR;
   3. have the right to vote, be appointed to committees and to hold office in the TRS; and
   4. pay dues and assessments, unless a waiver of dues has been approved by the ACR.

b. Members in Training. A Member in Training shall:
   1. occupy a residency position in radiology, radiation oncology, or in a radiologic subspecialty in a department of a Texas program approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education or the American Osteopathic Association; or

2. occupy a fellowship position in radiology, radiation oncology, or in a radiologic subspecialty in a department of a Texas program; or

3. be a student in a formal, approved Texas educational program in medical physics;

4. if a resident or fellow, be a member of the Resident & Fellow Section (RFS) of the TRS;

5. have the right to be appointed to committees;

6. not have the right to vote or hold office in the TRS, except as otherwise allowed in the Bylaws;

c. Honorary Members. An Honorary Member shall:

1. be an individual who has made special contributions to the field of radiology, radiation oncology, or medical physics, or possesses special qualifications in fields associated with radiology, but cannot fulfill the qualifications of active membership;

2. have been nominated for honorary membership by a TRS member or committee and approved by a 5/7 vote of the Board of Directors;

3. not have the right to be appointed to committees, to vote or to hold elective office;

d. Retired Members. A Retired Member shall:

1. be an Active Member who has fully retired from professional practice, whose written request for this status has been approved by the ACR;

2. have the right to be appointed to committees;

3. not have the right to vote or hold office in the TRS;

e. Inactive Members. An Inactive Member shall:

1. be an Active Member who is temporarily unable to continue the practice of radiology, and whose written request for this status has been approved by the ACR;

2. not have the right to vote, be appointed to committees or hold office in the TRS;

f. Allied Health Members shall:

1. be physicians not engaged in the practice of radiology, non-physician medical professionals such as MRI scientists and radiologist assistants, whose special qualifications are deemed valuable to the TRS and who are approved for membership by the ACR. (Radiologist assistants must be certified by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) as a Registered Radiologist Assistant).

2. have the right to be appointed to committees but shall not have the right to hold elective office or be a member of the Board of Directors, Board of Advisors or Texas Council.

4.3 Application for Membership to the TRS and ACR

a. Members may elect to apply for membership in both the TRS and the ACR or in the TRS only. See 4.4 for membership to the TRS only.

b. The ACR or joint ACR/TRS membership application form may be used.

c. The completed application shall be submitted to the ACR’s membership department, along with any supporting documents and complete payment of the applicable dues.

d. Applications for ACR membership are approved by the ACR according to ACR Bylaws.

e. ACR/TRS membership applications that are approved for ACR membership by the ACR are sent to the TRS office, along with the applicable portion of TRS dues. All ACR/TRS applications thus approved for ACR membership will be considered approved for TRS
4.4 Application for Membership to the TRS Only
   a. The joint ACR/TRS membership application form will be used.
   b. TRS only membership applications shall be submitted to the TRS Secretary/Executive Director, along with any supporting documents and complete payment of the applicable dues.
   c. The TRS Secretary/Executive Director shall review the applicant’s qualifications according to Membership Qualifications stated in 4.2.
   d. Applications which meet qualifications shall be considered approved.

4.5 Transferring Membership from Another State Chapter
   a. Procedures established by the ACR will be followed in handling all Chapter membership transfers.

4.6 Termination of Membership
   a. A member who wishes to resign may do so by writing a letter of resignation to the Secretary/Executive Director of the TRS.
   b. Membership will be revoked for nonpayment of dues according to 4.7.e.

4.7 Dues & Assessments
   a. All Active Members shall pay dues and assessments as determined by the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion.
   b. Members in Training, Honorary, Retired, and Inactive Members shall not pay dues or assessments.
   c. Members in Training become members of the TRS on completion of their training period. They are not billed for the remainder of the year in which they finish their training.
   d. Names of members who are delinquent in the payment of dues or assessments shall be referred to the Membership Committee for further action.
   e. All members who are delinquent in their dues payment after June 30th will have their membership automatically terminated.

4.8 Membership Meetings
   a. The annual membership meeting shall be held in conjunction with the annual scientific meeting at a time and place to be determined by the Board of Directors.
   b. The annual membership meeting of the TRS shall be open to all members, but only Active Members may vote.
   c. The purpose of the annual membership meeting shall be to elect the Second Vice President, First Vice President, President Elect, President, Treasurer (when applicable), and a member of the Nominating Committee and to transact any other business as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

4.9 Special Meetings
   a. Special meetings of the TRS may be called by the President acting alone and shall be called by the President at the request of:
      1. a majority of the voting members of the Board of Directors;
2. at least one-tenth of the Active Members; or
3. a majority of the Texas Council to the ACR.

b. No business may be transacted at a special meeting except the specific business for which the special meeting was called.

4.10 Notice of Meetings
a. Notice of the place, date and time of any meeting of the members, and if the meeting is a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be sent via electronic means.

b. The notice shall be delivered to each member entitled to vote at the meeting no later than the 10th day and not earlier than the 60th day before the date of the meeting.

4.11 Quorum and Voting
a. A quorum for the transaction of business of the TRS at the annual membership meeting is fifteen voting members, present in person. When a quorum is present at a meeting of the members, the vote of the holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast, present in person, shall decide any question brought before the meeting unless the question is one on which a greater vote is required by law or these Bylaws.

b. If a quorum is not present at a meeting of the members, the members entitled to vote and present in person shall have the power to adjourn the meeting, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present, at which time any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed.

4.12 TRS Gold Medal
The Gold Medal Committee may periodically select a candidate to receive the TRS Gold Medal, which is the highest honor bestowed by the TRS.

a. The Award:
   1. shall be for outstanding service to radiology and radiologists of Texas, or for meritorious scientific achievement that reflects credit upon radiology in Texas;
   2. is not intended for recognition of activities at the national level, but shall reflect the admiration and approval of the recipient’s peers within the TRS;
   3. is not obligatory each year; and
   4. should not be made posthumously, except when recipient has died following his or her selection.

b. Qualifications for Gold Medal Nominees: A nominee shall:
   1. have been a member of the TRS for at least ten years.
   2. currently be in good standing with the ACR and shall be certified by the American Board of Radiology, the American Board of Nuclear Medicine or the American Board of Osteopathic Radiology.

c. Nominating Process
   1. Nominations for the Gold Medal should be submitted to the Immediate Past President, who shall serve as Chair of the Gold Medal Committee.
   2. The President and President Elect shall serve as non-voting members of the Gold Medal Committee.
   3. Nominations shall be presented, in writing, at least three months prior to the date of the annual membership meeting.
4. The Board of Directors may nominate suitable candidates on its own.
5. Approval of a nominee shall require a two-thirds vote of the Gold Medal Committee and a 5/7 vote of the Board of Directors.
6. No more than one nominee shall be approved for any one year except in unusual circumstances to be determined by the unanimous vote of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 5 – SECTIONS OF THE TRS

5.1 Bylaws & Officers of Sections
   a. The TRS will have four sections: Radiation Oncology Section, Medical Physics Section, Young Physician Section and Resident & Fellow Section.
   b. Each section may have separate bylaws, which may augment but not replace, supercede, or contradict the bylaws of the TRS.
   c. Each section shall elect their own officers, develop their own scientific programs, and determine their own socioeconomic interests and business.
   d. Active participation in the affairs of the TRS is encouraged and is a requisite for election to office in the TRS.
   e. The Chair of each section will serve as a voting member of the TRS Board of Advisors.

5.2 Radiation Oncology Section (ROS)
   Membership in the Radiation Oncology Section is open to those members of the TRS who practice Radiation Oncology or who have demonstrated interest in this specialty.

5.3 Medical Physics Section (MPS)
   Membership in the Medical Physics Section is open to those members of the TRS who practice Radiation or Medical Physics or who have demonstrated interest in this specialty.

5.4 Young Physician Section (YPS)
   Membership in the Young Physician Section is open to those dues paying members of the TRS who are either under the age of 40 or within eight years of completion of training.

5.5 Resident & Fellow Section (RFS)
   a. All Members in Training of the TRS shall be members of the Resident & Fellow Section.
   b. Members of the RFS are encouraged to apply for Active Membership in the TRS upon completion of training.

ARTICLE 6 – BOARD OF DIRECTORS

6.1 Authority and Responsibility
   a. The Board of Directors of the TRS is the governing, decision-making and policy-making body of the TRS and shall have ultimate responsibility for the activities of the TRS.
   b. The Board of Directors shall abide by the duties of care, loyalty and obedience and will act reasonably, prudently, and in the best interests of the TRS to avoid negligence, fraud and conflicts of interest, while being faithful to the mission of the TRS and in accordance with the TRS Bylaws.
   c. The Board of Directors may take a position and express an opinion on behalf of the TRS on issues relevant to the profession.
   d. Board of Directors duties include:
