

Joshua S. Pollatsek, MBA

Mr. Pollatsek, with over 30 years experience in the health care industry, is an Executive Director in the Enterprise Client Development division of athenahealth. Before joining athena, he was the Vice President of Client Services at CodeRyte, Inc., responsible for implementations, account management and other professional services including ICD-10 Readiness Services. Before joining CodeRyte, he spent almost twenty years with 3M Corporation, most immediately as the Six Sigma Director for the Health Care Business, a diverse $4 Billion health care enterprise. Mr. Pollatsek has an extensive background in Health IT, with experience including marketing, business development, implementation and account management and general business management.

Josh holds a BA in Economics from Pitzer College and an MBA from the University of Maryland at College Park.