

Sean McNeeley, MD

Sean McNeeley, MD, received his medical degree from the former Medical College of Ohio in Toledo where he was elected into the honors medical society Alpha Omega Alpha. He completed his medical training at the Fairview General/Cleveland Clinic Family Medicine Residency Program. As a Board Certified Family Physician, he has worked in urgent care in some capacity since obtaining his medical license in 1997.

Dr. McNeeley is currently the medical director for University Hospitals Urgent Care Network - home of UCA's first urgent care fellowship program. A clinical instructor in the Department of Family Medicine at Case Western Reserve School of Medicine, Dr. McNeeley has been teaching fellows, residents, medical and other healthcare related students his entire career.

Dr. McNeeley is the President of UCA. He is also a founding board member of the Board of Certification of Urgent Care Medicine (BCUCM); a founding board member and immediate past President of the Urgent Care College of Physicians (now College of Urgent Care Medicine); sits on the editorial board of the Journal of Urgent Care Medicine (JUCM); and authored several chapters in the Textbook of Urgent Care Medicine.