

Jasmeet Singh Bhogal, MD

Since September 2017, Jasmeet Singh Bhogal has served as the President of the College of Urgent Care Medicine (CUCM). In his role, Jasmeet is responsible for strategic planning of the College's activities that support its clinician members in their practice of urgent care medicine. As a clinician, he is serving as the Regional Medical Director for Virginia and Medical Director for Patient Experience for Medstar Prompt Care. He is also currently serving as an editor for the Journal of Urgent Care Medicine.

Jasmeet has previously served as the Medical Director for Urgent Care at Lancaster General Health System in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, and Medical Director for Virtua Health System Urgent Care and Occupational Medicine network in South Jersey. In these roles, he developed the urgent care network for both organizations and helped them expand into multi-site urgent care networks.

Jasmeet has also served as the Urgent Care Association National Fellowship Director for Urgent Care Fellowships. He has also authored the chapter on Laceration Repair and Wound Management in the Textbook of Urgent Care Medicine. He has presented clinical topics on several occasions at the UCA conference and has authored articles in the Journal of Urgent Care Medicine (JUCM). He is the main contributor for Pharmacologic topics for the CUCM newsletter.

Jasmeet is board certified in Family Medicine. He completed his residency in Family Medicine at the University of Medicine and Dentistry, Robert Wood Johnson Medical School Family Medicine Program at Capital health system in Trenton, New Jersey in 2009. Jasmeet has also completed his Urgent Care Fellowship at University Hospitals in Cleveland, Ohio. He is currently pursuing his Executive MBA at the Fox School of Business at Temple University in Philadelphia.
