

Armando Samaniego, MD, MBA

Dr. Armando Samaniego is President and Chief Executive Officer of STAT MED Urgent Care/Urgent Care Partners in Concord, CA.

Prior to STAT MED, he was an Emergency Department Medical Director at both at St. Rose Hospital in Hayward, CA and Oak Valley Hospital in Oakdale, CA. He was also the Medical Education Director at Valley Emergency Physicians Medical Group.

He earned his medical degree from Harvard Medical School and his MBA at Paul Merage School of Business in Irvine, CA.

Dr. Samaniego is founder of the Educational Department for Valley Emergency Physicians and served as medical director for California Emergency Physician. He sat on many committees including the Medical Executive committee, Medical Quality Improvement, Peer Review, Medical Credentialing, Hospital Operation Committee, Pharmacy and Therapeutic committee.

Armando is one of the founding members of the California chapter of UCA and is now treasurer for California Urgent Care Association (CalUCA). He has also been an active member of UCA for many years.