

Ann Loperfito is the Vice President with PNC Bank NA. In her role as Manager of the Escheat Oversight Department, she oversees the centralized abandoned process property process for PNC Bank. Ann has worked with abandoned property at PNC for over ten years. Prior to joining PNC, Ann spent ten years working in operations for a community bank where she was responsible of abandoned property reporting.

Ann attended the University of Pittsburgh and the Sawyer Business School of Pittsburgh where she studied Accounting.