

Ann Loperfita is an Assistant Vice President with PNC Bank NA. In her role as Manager of the Escheat Oversight Department, she oversees the centralized abandoned process property process for PNC Bank. Ann has worked with abandoned property at PNC for ten years. Prior to joining PNC, Ann spent nine years working in operations for a community bank where she was responsible of abandoned property reporting.

Ann attended the University of Pittsburgh and the Sawyer Business School of Pittsburgh where she studied Accounting.