5	Arkansas	With this extension, businesses must escheat unclaimed assets no later than December 1, 2017	Auditor of State Andrea Lea announced an extension of the unclaimed property reporting deadline for businesses and entities impacted by Hurricanes Harvey and Irma. State statute mandates that businesses holding unclaimed assets which have gone unreturned to the owner for certain periods of time escheat those assets to the Auditor of State's Unclaimed Property Division, commonly known as the Great Arkansas Treasure Hunt, by October 31. The statute also authorizes the Auditor of State to grant extensions where necessary. "My heart aches for those impacted by these tragic storms. It's my hope that this extension will provide relief to the businesses struggling to return to normal operations," said Auditor Lea.	Businesses with questions regarding this extension or escheatment of unclaimed assets may call the Auditor of State's Unclaimed Property Compliance Division at 501-371-2103 or by emailing holders@auditor.ar.gov
6	California	See comments	At this time CA does not anticipate formally extending the due date for our Holder Notice Reports due by October 31, 2017. In the normal course of business we would still entertain any written request for an extension on a case-by-case basis with an explanation of the reason why they need an extension. For instance, "Extension request due to effects of hurricane Harvey / Irma", along with an explanation of the reason why. We will be doing an article on this in our quarterly holder newsletter that will go out soon.  http://sco.ca.gov/upd_rptg_notice.html
