

Mark M. Watters

Watters Unclaimed Property Consulting LLC

Mark Watters provides highly technical consulting and compliance unclaimed property and excise taxes for a national client base. These services include: Compliance; audit; initial compliance (including VDAs); liability reviews for savings opportunities; training and education; and research and opinion for a wide range of unclaimed property issues involving complicated facts and statutory interpretation. He is based out of Cincinnati, Ohio. Mr. Watters recently left a large national boutique tax firm, where he was the founder and practice leader for unclaimed property and federal and state excise taxes for over 20 years. He has over 37 years' experience including corporate tax employment and service as a hearing officer for the Ohio Department of Taxation.

Mark holds a juris doctorate, is licensed in several state bars, and holds both federal CAF and PTIN authorizations. He has authored and co-authored numerous articles. He speaks frequently about unclaimed property nationally. His experience spans virtually every commercial, financial, and manufacturing sector including state income and franchise taxes, excise taxes, sales and uses taxes, property taxes, many local taxes, and unclaimed property.