NASW Responds to Recent Tragedies

Our condolences go out to anyone affected by recent tragedies inflicted upon all Americans. As hate permeates through communities, we have some suggestions on actions to take to make a difference not only in Utah but nationally as well. Read our complete formal statement on our website for more information by clicking here

Tom Mulder Memorial Lunch and Lecture 2019

Our annual Tom Mulder lecture series was an eye opening and vibrant dialogue informing clinicians of issues facing LGBTQI+ individuals both old and young. "Creating a Vision For The Future Practice with LGBTQ Older Adults" with Charlie P. Hoy-Ellis, MSW, PhD, LCSW, and Troy Williams of Equality Utah giving us an update on the status of Utah's conversion therapy ban. Equipped with this information, we can all be better informed allies.

Did you miss this years lecture? Keep an eye out for information about our upcoming workshops!

Violence and Bullying in Schools: Tips for Students and Social Workers

Cynthia Henderson, PhD, LCSW, LCSW-C, Senior Practice Associate

School violence and bullying may affect a student's physical, mental and social well-being. School social workers are becoming increasingly aware of the need for prevention and intervention to lessen the impact on learning, academic performance, and safety for children, teachers, mental health staff, parents, and all other school staff.

NASW on Gun Violence

"America has been devastated by gun violence for decades in both urban and rural communities. Recently a significant number of Americans have become concerned about the pervasiveness and almost normalization of gun violence. We can point to three examples of gun violence that have been the impetus for a movement to bring about reforms in gun ownership: the shooting of James Brady during the assassination attempt on Ronald Reagan in 1981, the shooting of Congresswoman Gabby Giffords in 2011, and the more general increase of highly publicized gun-related mass killings between 2006 and 2017."
