The Changing Landscape: Staying Abreast of the Latest Treatments and Techniques in Ophthalmic Practice, with a special focus on MIGS

The Hilton McLean, 7920 Jones Branch Dr, McLean, VA

Educational Goal:

Our educational goal is to identify & explore the latest developments in the prevention, diagnosis, management and treatment of ophthalmic conditions. After participating in this meeting, attendees should be armed with some best practices that can be readily implemented in their current practices. They should also gain an awareness of how future trends and developments will shape their future patient care and practice management endeavors.

After participating in our annual scientific meeting, participants will be better able to:

- Identify latest developments in prevention, diagnosis, management & treatment of ophthalmic conditions.
- Evaluate best practices in diagnosis & management of ophthalmic conditions that can quickly be implemented in ophthalmologist's practice immediately after participation in meeting, & in more distant future.
- Relate complications of ophthalmic disease & surgery.
- Utilize principles of management of ophthalmic complications.
- Analyze advances in ophthalmic medical research & determine implications for physicians & patients.
- Relate ethical concerns faced by ophthalmologists in their daily practice, and evaluate steps to successfully maneuver through these challenges
- Identify references and additional guidance on the ethical practice of ophthalmology.
- Outline advances in the specialty areas of cornea, cataracts, pediatric ophthalmology & glaucoma
- Apply best practices in practice management.
