

Bridget Binsbacher

For over 30 years, Bridget has been more than just a resident of the North Valley, she has been an active participant and leader in the community.

With 20 years of experience in the financial industry working in operations management, sales management and business development, Bridget brings a wealth of experience and talent.

She has shown her dedication to the community by serving on the Executive Board of the Alzheimer's Association, Vice President of Business Affairs/Treasurer for the Arizona Cactus League Baseball Association, the Board Development Committee Chair for the Peoria Chamber of Commerce and various Parent and Athletic Clubs in the Peoria Unified School District.

She joined the Peoria Diamond Club as a Board member in 2006 and led the organization to new heights after being named Executive Director in July 2008.

A strong business background and experience in non-profit leadership prepared her for her next role in city government. In March of 2015, Bridget was elected to the Peoria City Council and now serves as Vice Mayor. She currently serves as the liaison to education, on the Maricopa Association of Governments Transportation Policy and Human Services Committees.

Her tireless dedication has not gone unrecognized. Bridget is a Paul Harris Fellow recipient, a West Valley 24 Mover and Shaker and one of 2016's Who's Who, Top Five Women in Business Leaders of Arizona.

Bridget serves proudly in her second term as a Peoria City Councilmember and is the Director of Operations for the Arizona Cactus League Baseball Association. Her husband, Jon, is a Fire Captain and Paramedic in the Northwest Valley. They live in Peoria and have four children".
