PHOENIX-- Governor Doug Ducey kicked off the new year with his State of the State Address and Executive Budget Proposal which focus on a number of key areas of the state's economy, touting "The Arizona Way." Entering his sixth year as the state's chief executive, Governor Ducey has received much acclaim for his economic development policies and will be the guest speaker at the Valley Partnership January Friday Morning Breakfast. Joining Valley Partnership President and CEO Cheryl Lombard in a fireside chat, Governor Ducey will share his thoughts on the current state of our economy, transportation and infrastructure, workforce development and water management.

Registration, breakfast and networking begins at 7:00am on Friday, January 24th. The program will begin at 7:30am, with guest registration available online at the Valley Partnership website.

"Since his election in 2014, Governor Doug Ducey has been laser-focused on policies to improve the state's economic position," said Cheryl Lombard, President & CEO of Valley Partnership. "Under the Governor's leadership, the state legislature and Congress ratified the Drought Contingency Plan in order to manage our reduced water supply and plan for the state's continued growth through responsible development. We look forward to hearing Governor Ducey's vision for the state and his plans for critical issues such as water and transportation."
