THE EGB IS THE EUROPEAN NON-PROFIT ASSOCIATION FOR THE VALUE MANAGEMENT TRAINING & CERTIFICATION SYSTEM
(VALUE FOR EUROPE)

History
• Origin: SPRINT Program of the European Union 1989-93 (Strategic PRogram for INnovation and Technology Transfer) to enhance the European infrastructure for innovation through transnational networks. VM Handbook published in 1995
• EN 12973 published 1999 in English, 2000 in German. Foundation of the EGB as an informal committee in June 2000
• Formal registration of the EGB as an organization according to the French law in June 2004 in Paris.

Objectives
• Common European Value Management Standard
• Common European formation and certification system, its supervision, quality monitoring, development, deployment in Europe
• Representation of European countries in global VM Topics

Actual Progress
• New revision of “VALUE FOR EUROPE“. Simplification of systems and adaptation of requirements.
• Promotion of the European Training & Certification System, acquisition of new EU countries
• Major input into the task forces of CEN TC279:
  1. Revision of EN 12973 – Value Management – with the target to create an ISO-Standard
  2. Update of EN 1325 – Value Management Terms – ready for publication
