The 2018 VAS Convention received local news exposure to the area surrounding Harrisonburg and Staunton. We were featured twice on Friday, January 19, once at 5:00 PM and again during the 6:00 PM programming. President Kevin Shreiner had an opportunity to discuss the importance of surveyors to the Commonwealth and an ETSU surveying student, Jacob Owens, had an opportunity to talk about why surveying is of interest to him.

Where do you start to tackle the daunting task of finding, recruiting and developing future surveyors?

by Matthew Mostellar

For our Western Chapter chair, it all started with a single e-mail that landed him a quick response and an opportunity to change the minds of several young students. Steve Douty led the charge, but Mostellar and a group of his cohorts were able to replicate Douty's enthusiasm on a local level within their own community.

A Drone's Eye View of History

by Don Little

I saw an interesting article, A Drone's-Eye View of History, in the fall magazine of the Library of Virginia called Broadside. The article includes images about the board of Public Works who employed engineers to survey routes for turnpikes, canals, etc. Read More

Letter from the Editor
My first day on the job as ODS editor and I can see this is a busy position already. I will be working with Ebonique Ellis from JMP&A. She and Gary Faulhaber did a great job moving the digital version of ODS to where it is now. I hope to continue and expand from this effort. Our 2018 editorial schedule is as follows:

- 1st Tuesday-Reminder to members for articles.
- 2nd Tuesday-Review proposed content of monthly edition.
- Last Monday-Review
- Last Thursday-Publication
This above schedule provides some detail on when you will need to submit news, photographs, and articles to make a certain month's publication. Please feel free to submit anytime, as we can always save it for the following month, if necessary.
