Thank you!
The VBA commends these Board of Governors members, who are rotating off the board, for their contributions:

Hugh M. Fain III, 2012 VBA president
Travis G. Hill, 2013 chair of the YLD
James P. Cox III, Blue Ridge representative
Monica Taylor Monday, At-large representative
Alfred M. "Ran" Randolph Jr., Tidewater representative

Continuing members of the 2014 Board of Governors are:

Thomas R. Bagby, Southwest
Elaina L. Blanks, YLD chair
Cyril F. Coombs, At-large
S. Miles Dumville, Capitol
The Honorable John S. Edwards, Legislative representative
Mark L. Esposito, Southwest
M. Melissa Glassman, Potomac
James P. Guy II, At-large
Harry M. "Pete" Johnson III, At-large
The Honorable Louis R. Lerner, Judicial representative
David S. Mercer, At-large
Dean Wendy Collins Perdue, Law School representative
Donald C. Schultz, At-large
Eric J. Sorenson Jr., Southside
Lori D. Thompson, At-large
John L. Walker III, Capitol

2014 VBA Leadership Slate
Proposed officers

JOHN L. WALKER III — PRESIDENT
John is a partner at Williams Mullen in Richmond. His practice focuses on business litigation. A VBA member since 1989, John served as chair of the YLD in 1997. He was elected to the Board of Governors in 2010. John is a past president and a Fellow of the Virginia Law Foundation and serves as chairman of the board of trustees of Collegiate School and as a trustee of the College Foundation at the University of Virginia. He is a graduate of U.Va. and the T.C. Williams School of Law at the University of Richmond.

HARRY M. "PETE" JOHNSON III — PRESIDENT-ELECT
Pete is a partner at Hunton & Williams LLC in Richmond, where he focuses on environmental litigation and trial work. A VBA member since 1989, he served as chair of the YLD in 1998, also sitting on the VBA Board. He re-joined the Board of Governors in 2011. Pete serves as co-chair of the VBA Pro Bono Task Force and was instrumental in organizing the 2010 and 2012 Pro Bono Summits. He is a graduate of Princeton University and the University of Virginia School of Law.

JAMES P. GUY II — CHAIR
Jim is the energy industry team leader at LeClairRyan in Richmond. He represents infrastructure companies in regulatory, transactional, corporate and legislative matters. A VBA member since 1991, he most recently served a two-year term as chair of the Law Practice Management Division. Jim has been Southern Chapter president of the Energy Bar Association and is chairman of the non-profit HARPS Foundation. He is a graduate of U.Va. and the T.C. Williams School of Law.

THOMAS R. BAGBY — IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT
Tom, who served as president of the VBA in 2013, is president of Woods Rogers PLC in Roanoke, where he directs its labor and employment law section. He specializes in representing management on labor and employment law issues. A VBA member since 1996, Tom has served as chair of the VBA Labor Relations and Employment Law Section and chair and president-elect of the VBA. He earned bachelor's and law degrees from the University of Virginia.

The Virginia Bar Association is the independent voice of the Virginia lawyer, advancing the highest ideals of the profession through advocacy and volunteer service.
NUPUR S. BAL
Chair-elect, VBA Young Lawyers Division

Nupur is an associate at Batzli Stiles Butler PC in Richmond. She concentrates her practice in family law and divorce, including child and spousal support, asset distribution, and premarital and postnuptial agreements. Previously, she worked at The Condo Law Group, PC, in the Washington, D.C., metro area. She joined the VBA in 2007 and has served as secretary/treasurer of the Young Lawyers Division and as the YLD membership state-wide coordinator. Nupur graduated from Emory University and Tulane Law School.

CHERYL L. BLACK
Chair, Law Practice Management Division

Cheryl is a principal of Goodman Allen & Filetti PLLC in Richmond, where she focuses her practice on intellectual property law. A former employee of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, she recently served on its Trademark Public Advisory Committee. Cheryl has been chair-elect of the LPMD for the past two years and is active on the VBA Intellectual Property and Information Technology Law Section Council. She joined the VBA in 2008 and is a graduate of Ithaca College and Georgetown University Law Center.

WILLIAM A. GALANKO
VBA Board of Governors, Tidewater Region

Bill is vice president-law at Norfolk Southern Corp. in Norfolk, a position he assumed in 2006. He joined the transportation company in 1990 as a general tax attorney. He later became tax counsel, vice president-taxation and vice president-financial planning. A VBA member since 1991, Bill serves on the Committee on Special Issues of National & State Importance. He graduated from West Virginia University and holds law degrees from the College of William & Mary Law School and Georgetown University.

MICHAEL HuYOUNG
VBA Board of Governors, Capitol Region

Michael is a director and shareholder of Barnes & Diehl, P.C., in Richmond, where he also serves as chairman of its criminal litigation section. Previously, Michael was managing partner at The Law Firm of Michael HuYoung, P.C. He joined the VBA in 2010 and chaired the Criminal Law Section in 2012. Michael was instrumental in presenting a showcase program on the Thomas Haynesworth case during one of the VBA’s major meetings. He graduated from the University of Virginia and from the University of Richmond School of Law.

C.J. STEUART THOMAS III
VBA Board of Governors, Blue Ridge Region

Stuart is an attorney at Timberlake, Smith, Thomas & Moses, P.C., in Staunton. He focuses his practice on medical malpractice law and civil litigation. Since joining the VBA in the early 1990s, he has served on the Committee on Federal Judgeships – Western District and the Civil Litigation Section Council and is a member of the Health Law Section. He also is a member of the Boyd-Graves Conference. Stuart received a bachelor's degree from the University of Virginia and a law degree from Washington and Lee University.

MARY C. ZINSNER
VBA Board of Governors, Potomac Region

Mary is a partner at Troutman Sanders LLP in McLean, where her practice focuses on business and commercial litigation and representing financial institutions. Mary, who joined the VBA in 1990, serves on the VBA Committee on Federal Judgeships – Eastern District, and on the Judiciary Committee. She received the VBA Young Lawyers Division Emerson G. Spies Award in 1997 and the YLD Fellows Award in 2001. She graduated from the College of the Holy Cross and earned a law degree from George Washington University.

THE VBA BOARD OF GOVERNORS consists of the president, president-elect, immediate past president, chair of the LPMD, chair and chair-elect of the YLD, and chair of the Board of Governors. In addition, regional representatives from each of the six Grand Divisions and six at-large members serve three-year, staggered terms. The board also may include a judicial representative, a legislative representative and a law school representative, who each serve a minimum one-year term. VBA members also elect a representative to the America Bar Association House of Delegates for a two-year term that begins late this summer.

G. MICHAEL PACE JR.
VBA Representative to ABA House of Delegates

Mike is the first general counsel of Roanoke College, the home of The Center for Teaching the Rule of Law. Its signature project is the Virginia Law Foundation & The Virginia Bar Association Rule of Law Project, which he started while president of the VBA in 2008. The longtime managing partner at Gentry Locke Rakes & Moore, LLP, he continues there as of counsel. A member of the VBA since 1986, Mike received a bachelor's degree from Hampden-Sydney College and a law degree from Washington and Lee University.