

Rebecca Kaderli, LPC, LSATP, NCC has served on the Virginia Counselors Association Board of Directors since 2013. Rebecca strongly believes that counselors are healers who catalyze lasting change in the mind, body, and community. She currently practices counseling and supervises residents at the Richmond Behavioral Health Authority, where she has recently been the back-to-back recipient of the 2018/2019 Champion Award for Advocacy for effectively and appropriately advocating for an underserved population. Rebecca loves her work and cites being a counselor as a reason to get up in the morning and the reason she loves VCA.

Rebecca believes in VCA's vision to empower counselors to Live Well and Serve Well. She is excited to be rejoining the Executive Council as President during the 2019/20 fiscal year to propel the initiatives of the Strategic Plan into the future and is especially looking forward to the website makeover and the advocacy agenda. Rebecca is proud to work side by side with school counselors, counselor educators, QMHPs, CSACs and all counseling professionals to support, empower and advocate for the diverse needs of ALL counselors in Virginia.

Rebecca is a Licensed Professional Counselor, Licensed Substance Abuse Treatment Provider, Nationally Certified Counselor, and Registered Supervisor who holds a Master's Degree in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from South University, and Bachelors in Psychology from the University of North Carolina, Charlotte. She has serviced in the positions of VCA Parliamentarian, Secretary-Elect, Secretary, and President-Elect; and multi-year President of the Richmond Area Counselors Association. Affiliations include the American Counseling Association, International Association of Addictions and Offender Counselors, Association for Multicultural Counseling and Development, Virginia Counselors Association, Richmond Area Counselors Association, Virginia Clinical Counselors Association, Virginia Association of Addictions Counselors, the Recovery Coalition, National Alliance of Mental Illness, and Chi Sigma Iota. She is a recipient of the Richmond Area Chapter Member of the Year award and the founder of the RACA Spring Symposium.

Rebecca lives in Glen Allen, Virginia, with her sportscaster husband and tweenage daughter, and in her free time you'll find her power lifting or at the opera.
