School Directory

We will be adding a family directory to the ParentsWeb site. It will include student and parent contact information. The directory will serve a multitude of purposes, including addresses for invitations or thank you notes and supplying volunteer coordinators with a method of keeping in touch with their team members. We feel this directory will be a valuable communication tool for our families at John F. Kennedy Catholic School.

The directory will be available on ParentsWeb in mid-September.

If you are interested in being included in our school directory, please check the boxes next to the information that you give permission for us to publish in the directory.
