105 High St.
Warren, OH 44481

Request for Transportation to a Community, Non-Public, or Parochial School 2018-2019 School Year

State law requires public schools to provide transportation to community, non-public, and parochial school students according to the following guidelines:

1. Transportation must be requested of the public school district by the parent; and
2. Transportation must be provided according to the same guidelines as those established for resident students attending public schools in the district.

The Warren City Schools Board of Education Policy states: Children living beyond the following walking limits shall be entitled to bus transportation:

- |    |                        |          |
|----|------------------------|----------|
| A. | Kindergarten through 8 | 1 mile   |
| B. | Grades 9 through 12    | 2 miles. |

If your student meets these guidelines, please complete the following information and return the form to the Transportation Office, Warren City School District, 600 Roanoke SE, Warren, OH 44483.
