WASHINGTON ASSOCIATION OF SCHOOL BUSINESS OFFICIALS STANDARDS OF CONDUCT
FOR THE PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

*Now, especially, in this age of accountability, when the activities and conduct of school business officials are subject to greater scrutiny and more severe criticism than ever before, Standards of Conduct are in order. The association cannot fully discharge its obligations of leadership and service to its members short of establishing appropriate standards of behavior.

In Relationships Within the School District, school business officials will:

1. Support the goals and objectives of the employing school system.
2. Interpret the policies and practices of the district to subordinates and to the community fairly and objectively.
3. Implement, to the best of the official's ability, the policies and administrative regulations of the district.
4. Assist fellow administrators as appropriate in fulfilling their obligations.
5. Build the best possible image of the school district.
6. Refrain from publicly criticizing board members, administrators, or other employees.
7. Help subordinates to achieve their maximum potential through fair and just treatment.

In the Conduct of Business and the Discharge of School District Responsibilities, school business officials will:

1. Conduct business honestly, openly, and with integrity.
2. Avoid conflict of interest situations by not conducting business with a company or firm in which the official or any member of the official's family has a vested interest.
3. Avoid preferential treatment of one outside interest group, company, or individual over another.
4. Uphold the dignity and decorum of the office in every way.
5. Avoid using the position for personal gain.
6. Never accept or offer illegal payment for services rendered.
7. Refrain from accepting gifts, free services, or anything of monetary value for or because of any act performed, anticipated, or withheld.
8. Permit the use of school property only for official authorized activities.
9. Refrain from soliciting contributions from subordinates or outside sources for gifts or donations to a superior.
10. Report in a timely manner any misuse of school funds/property or any misuse of authority to the appropriate administrator/Board of Directors.

In Relationships with Colleagues in Other Districts and Professional Associations, school business officials will:

1. Whenever possible, support the actions of a colleague and avoid public criticism or censure.
2. Offer assistance and/or guidance to a colleague when such help is requested or when the need is obvious.
3. Actively support appropriate professional associations aimed at improving school business management and encourage colleagues to do likewise.
4. Accept leadership roles and responsibilities when appropriate, but refrain from "taking over" any association.
5. Refrain from using any organization or position of leadership in it for personal gain.
6. Behave in a professional manner at all times.

*In addition to the Standards of Conduct, school business officials will adhere to the Code of Professional Conduct for Education Practitioners (where it applies) Chapter 180-87 WAC Washington State Board of Education Administrative Rules as of this date and hereafter amended.

Standards of Conduct Affidavit

I certify that I have read the above Standards of Conduct and further, that I understand and agree to respect, honor, and uphold these Standards of the WASBO Professional Certification Program.
