

TECHNICAL & MANUFACTURING CONFERENCE

June 28-30, 2016 | Chicago, Illinois

Sponsorship Opportunities

WDMA will be holding its Annual Technical & Manufacturing Conference in downtown Chicago, Illinois at the InterContinental Chicago Hotel on Magnificent Mile from Tuesday, June 28 to Thursday, June 30. This is your chance to reach out to industry leaders and technical experts in the window, door, and skylight industry. This two and a half day event features numerous sessions reporting on current industry research, trends in manufacturing processes and procedures, and emerging product technologies. Effective breakout sessions will focus on topics relevant to the window, architectural door and other segments of our membership and industry. Outside the session halls, exclusive networking events will be the ideal place to find out about innovative products and services important to your business and product design. Returning this year will be a spectacular networking event at U.S. Cellular Field the home of the Chicago White Sox.
