Welcome and Introductions
1:00 - 1:10 p.m., Aaron Breitenbach, Moderator

Blurred Lines (Part 1)
1:10 - 2:00 p.m. (50 Minutes, ethics), presented by Danielle M. Hall

Boundaries are important. In sports, they define the area of play. In personal relationships they mark the emotional and physical limits one establishes in a relationship. But what about professional boundaries? Professional boundaries are designed to protect both, the client and the lawyer. They define effective and appropriate interaction between the parties. Without boundaries problems can arise, schedules can implode, and the lawyer can lose a sense of work/life balance. The failure to set healthy boundaries can also lead to ethical violations. With the increased use of technology in the law practice, the boundary lines can sometimes begin to blur. In this session, we will discuss the importance of setting boundaries, how to set boundaries, and the positive effects it can have for your work and your wellbeing.

Break 2:00 - 2:10 p.m.

Blurred Lines (Part 2)
2:10 - 3:00 p.m. (50 Minutes, ethics), presented by Danielle M. Hall

This session will be a continuation of Ms. Hall’s presentation on the importance of setting boundaries, how to set boundaries, and the positive effects it can have for your work and your wellbeing.
