

The Town of North Providence Proclaims

“November 24, 2018 as Small Business Saturday”

WHEREAS, the Town of North Providence, Rhode Island, celebrates our local small businesses and the contributions they make to our local economy and community. According to the U.S. Small Business Administration, there are currently 3.2 million small businesses in the United States, they represent 99.7 percent of all businesses with employees in the United States, are responsible for 65.9 percent of net new jobs created from 2000 to 2017; and

WHEREAS, small businesses employ 47.5 percent of employees in the private sector in the United States, and

Whereas, 90% of consumers in the United States say Small Business Saturday has had a positive impact on their community; and

Whereas, 89% of consumers who are aware of Small Business Saturday said the day encourages them to Shop Small all year long; and

Whereas, 73% of consumers who reportedly Shopped Small at independently-owned retailers and restaurants on Small Business Saturday did so with friends or family; and

Whereas, the most reported reason for consumers aware of the day to shop and dine at small, independently-owned businesses was to support their community (64%); and

WHEREAS, North Providence, Rhode Island supports our local businesses that create jobs, boost our local economy and preserve our neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS, advocacy groups as well as public and private organizations across the country have endorsed the Saturday after Thanksgiving as Small Business Saturday.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Mayor Charles Lombardi of the Town of North Providence, do hereby proclaim November 24, 2018 to be Small Business Saturday. I urge the residents of our community, and communities across the country, to support small businesses and merchants on Small Business Saturday and throughout the year.
