

Gaithersburg

Proclamation

of the Mayor and City Council of Gaithersburg

WHEREAS, the Mayor and City Council of the City of Gaithersburg, Maryland, celebrate the entrepreneurial spirit of our local small business owners, whose resourcefulness and ingenuity are key forces in driving the economy of our City; and

WHEREAS, our City's small businesses span an exceptionally wide range of industries, including retail, food service, healthcare, professional and technical fields; and

WHEREAS, Gaithersburg's small business owners have realized success through their vision, hard work, and commitment to operating a business daily, and their efforts are critical to building a prosperous future for our community; and

WHEREAS, advocacy groups and public and private organizations across the country have endorsed the Saturday after Thanksgiving as "Small Business Saturday":

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jud Ashman, by the power vested in me as Mayor of Gaithersburg, do hereby proclaim the Saturday after Thanksgiving, November 30th, 2019 to be "Small Business Saturday" within the City of Gaithersburg, and encourage the continued support and development of our small businesses and merchants throughout the year.

Proclaimed this 18th day of November, 2019
