Megan C. Connor

Megan Connor is a partner with PilieroMazza. She counsels clients on a variety of government contracting and business matters, including regulatory compliance, bid protests, security clearances, and intellectual property law. Ms. Connor is an ardent advocate for her clients, always keeping the clients' business goals in mind.

For small businesses, she counsels on affiliation issues, limitations on subcontracting, and how to maintain size and status. Ms. Connor also pursues and defends small business size and status protests and appeals before the SBA. In addition, Ms. Connor's litigation background includes representing contractors in state and federal court concerning business and employment matters.

Ms. Connor received her Bachelor of Science degree from Boston University and received her law degree from the University of Miami School of Law. Super Lawyers has recognized Ms. Connor as a top government contracts lawyer under 40, naming her to the 2016, 2017 and 2018 lists of Rising Stars.
