

WY HOSPITALITY WORKERS RELIEF FUND

DONATE NOW

www.wlra.org

The WLRA Education Foundation recognizes the dire situation the hospitality industry is in due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Hospitality operations are a strong economic driver with over $3.9 billion generated in the State of Wyoming. 32,480 of Wyoming's work force are in the Hospitality industry. These businesses support local economies and according to some studies, restaurants alone pump nearly 60% of their money back into their local business communities.

To help bring swift economic relief to these essential businesses and employees, the Foundation is launching a fund, WY Hospitality Workers Relief Fund, that will be gathering support from corporate, foundation, and individual donors to provide micro-grants to employees in dire need.

The purpose of the Relief Fund is to provide critical financial assistance to employees, due to COVID-19 national disaster, have an immediate need for funds to pay bills. Our goal is to do our part along with federal, state and local governments to provide workers reduce the financial impacts during this global pandemic.

We know that swift action is needed to ensure there is a vibrant hardworking employees keep standing once we are on the other side of this pandemic. We hope you'll support - at any level you can - to help these individuals.

WLRAEF is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization and your donation is tax-deductible within the guidelines of the U.S. law.

