Our mission at WIB is to help women advance in their careers. It is particularly exciting when we have the opportunity to celebrate the success of two of our own, Jamie Strachota and Shannon Lachance, who are taking the next step in their careers.

Over the past eight years, Jamie served as WIB's Executive Manager and Executive Director. During her tenure at WIB, Jamie continued to hone her leadership skills, build upon her experiences, and expand the network that she developed through WIB to create a new path for herself. Jamie is pursuing a new opportunity and we thank her for all that she's done for our organization in helping us grow to where we are today.

We are also thrilled to announce that Shannon Lachance, our current Events and Database Coordinator, will assume additional responsibilities as our new Operations Coordinator, managing the day-to-day activities of our growing organization. Shannon has been with WIB for seven years, acting in a variety of roles, as WIB significantly expanded its visibility, programs and membership. She brings to this new role her unwavering enthusiasm and a vast library of institutional knowledge.

WIB's 2018 theme is "Lift as you Climb," which is exemplified by both Jamie and Shannon. Thank you to both Jamie and Shannon for helping Women In Bio shine as an organization of energetic, entrepreneurial leaders who are dedicated to the mission of inviting, supporting, succeeding!

Please join me in congratulating them as we look forward to celebrating their continued success.
