EXECUTIVE WOMEN IN BIO
SPONSORSHIP DRIVE

When we rise, we enable the next generation to rise and to reach their potential. We believe that a diverse workforce is essential to enabling groundbreaking innovation. We believe that corporate boards should be diverse because cognitive diversity foreshadows good corporate governance, fosters superior decision-making, and results in enhanced business outcomes.

Executive Women In Bio (EWIB) invites all members of the Boardroom Ready community - alumnae, participants, supporters, and friends - to join a fundraising campaign in order to further invest in EWIB’s mission to support diversity and inclusion across the highest levels of decision-making in life sciences.

WOMEN IN BIO BACKGROUND

Women In Bio (WIB) was founded in 2002 and since then has been the fastest-growing life science organization committed to promoting women’s careers, leadership and entrepreneurship for women in life sciences. WIB is well represented nationally with 13 chapters in North America.

From the classroom to the boardroom, WIB supports the lifelong journey of women life sciences at every step of the journey. The current membership comprises over 2700 members and over 18,000 supporters across all sectors of life sciences, including biotech, pharma, academia, medtech, diagnostics, tools as well as philanthropic organizations, legal and accounting firms, and service providers such as CROs and CMOs. WIB’s signature programs include national programs at signature industry conferences such as BIO, webinars, targeted events, mentorship opportunities and the renowned Boardroom Ready program.

Executive Women In Bio (EWIB) is WIB’s executive arm dedicated to advancing senior women. The Boardroom Ready program is EWIB’s signature program and serves as an executive development platform designed to accelerate senior women’s participation on life sciences’ private and public corporate boards.

Through supporting Women In Bio (registered 501(c)(3) charity), your contribution will enable WIB to continue its mission of promoting women’s role as leaders, stewards, and entrepreneurs in life sciences.
