Bringing the Parkinson's Community Together

WPC eNews

As we approach the one year mark until the 4th World Parkinson Congress, there are many preparations taking place behind the scenes! The Portland Countdown podcast series continues to inform the community on the latest scientific advances and the WPC Scientific Update 2015 in October will offer another opportunity for the community to stay updated. Tuning into these programs gives you a glimpse of what kind of sessions, and the caliber of speakers, you can expect at the WPC 2016.

Attention to our WPC Friends in the Chicago Area

The WPC will be exhibiting at the Society for Neuroscience (SfN) Conference in October and we would love your help! We are looking for friends who are knowledgeable about the WPC and are comfortable chatting with neurologists and neuroscientists to help host the WPC table at SfN 2015. Interested? Please email us at info@worldpdcoalition.org.

Portland Countdown

The next podcast in the Portland Countdown series is available TODAY! "When in Doubt: Exercise!" is an interview with Dr. Helen-Bronte-Stewart & Dr. Terry Ellis. Listeners will learn why neurologists tell their Parkinson's patients that exercise is as important as the pills prescribed.
