About the Wisconsin Real Estate Alumni Association

The Wisconsin Real Estate Alumni Association is the leading alumni network of commercial real estate professionals comprised of graduates and friends of the UW-Madison Real Estate Program. In addition to providing alumni and affiliate members with numerous networking, business development, and professional development opportunities, the alumni association also provides financial resources for student scholarships and assistance to faculty at the UW Madison Real Estate Program. Generous donations made to the alumni association by dedicated alumni and friends make possible the allocation of funding for these scholarships.
