

Training at your neighbors—hurry, seats are limited...

You're invited to two days of information packed training, networking and open discussion. The sessions are hosted by West Wisconsin Telcom Coop in Menomonie, WI. Read on for further details...

October 16th:

Everything You Need to Know About CBOL

9 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Difficulty level: Intermediate

This class provides an overview of Consumer Broadband-Only Loop (CBOL) service. Topics include CBOL provisioning, USF reporting and cost recovery, the CBOL tariff filing process, rate development, pool reporting and billing.

October 17th:

A.M. Session:

9 a.m. – 12 p.m.

ASR for Special Access

Difficulty Level: Intermediate

This class provides an overview of recent FCC orders and NECA tariff updates. Topics include USF reform, new tariff services and pooling reporting changes.

P.M. Sessions:

1 p.m. – 4 p.m.

ETS Overview

Difficulty Level: Beginner/Intermediate

This class provides a high-level overview of NECA Tariff F.C.C. No. 5 Ethernet Transport Services. Topics include rate elements and their application, term discounts and the use of ETS for interconnecting the internet service provider's premises to the NECA traffic sensitive pool participant's Digital Subscriber Line Access Service Connection Point.

Non-Regulated Activities in a Regulated Environment

Difficulty Level: Beginner/Intermediate

This class provides guidance on the allocation of costs of non-regulated facilities and services when provided by a regulated telephone company. Topics include local exchange service using VoIP technology, the allocation of spare C&WF investment, separations of DSL services, integrated network interface

Location:

West Wisconsin Tel
912 Crescent Street
Menomonie, WI 54751

Meals

NECA will provide breakfast and lunch days

Please arrive promptly:

Classes begin at 9 a.m.

Cost:

Training is free for NECA members and their consultants

Cancellations

Please make us aware of any cancellations as soon as possible

Remember to bring a sweater or a jacket!

Please dress in layers of clothing as room temperatures will fluctuate. A sweater or jacket is highly recommended all year long.

devices and a general discussion for the apportionment of costs for non-regulated services.

Target Audience: Member company personnel and management responsible for revenue assurance, billing, and NECA pool reporting.

Registration Instructions

Login to the NECA Members Only website using your existing username and password. If you have not attended training in the past or do not have access, you will need to go through a brief registration process.

Register by visiting:

https://www.neca.org/Education_Landing_page.aspx

Click on Training Classroom Course Offerings

1. Select one of the registration options
2. Click on the North Central Region link on the left
3. Check each class you would like to attend
4. Scroll to the bottom, click "register"

Call JoAnne Embley at 314-567-2808 or email at jembley@neca.org for assistance.

Notes

If the dates, locations, or public regional sessions do not fit your company's needs, please contact Teri Kessler at: (314) 567-2804 or tkessler@neca.org to schedule onsite training.