Wyoming Bankers Association

PACIFIC COAST BANKING SCHOOL and WYOMING BANKERS ASSOCIATION 'RISE ABOVE THE REST' SCHOLARSHIP

To better educate our high-potential leaders in banking and to assist Wyoming banks by providing a valuable professional development opportunity, Pacific Coast Banking School partners with Wyoming Bankers Association (WBA) to offer a tuition scholarship for the 2016 Resident Session of Pacific Coast Banking School (PCBS).

THE PCBS PROGRAM

Since 1938, Pacific Coast Banking School, in partnership with the Foster School of Business at the University of Washington, has offered a premier three year graduate-level leadership and financial management education program focused on the banking industry. The PCBS family includes over 10,000 bankers, with hundreds currently in key leadership roles in banks across the country. Premier instructors and cutting-edge curriculum offer practical answers to today's most critical banking dilemmas faced by bankers from all aspects of banking and all sizes of banks.

THE PROCESS

Tuition before the scholarship is applied is $4,970, which includes a non-refundable registration fee of $295, single room accommodations, meals and classes, along with administrative and faculty support for intersession work. The scholarship amount is $1,300 and is applicable to the first-year 2016 PCBS tuition only. The scholarship recipient is responsible for the $3,670 tuition balance.

The deadline for submitting scholarship applications to the WBA is May 16, 2016. Nominees must also submit a PCBS application. Qualifying applications will be forwarded to the Scholarship Review Committee, and nominees will be informed of the Committee's decision by May 20, 2016.

CANDIDATE PRE-REQUISITES

The scholarship nominee must complete:

- 1 – The PCBS 2016 Session Application
