Wyoming Bankers Association

Exciting Member Opportunities In 2020!

The Wyoming Bankers Association Needs YOU.

Whether your interest lies in financial institution lending, government relations, or management, we need your knowledge and expertise. Your involvement as a committee member is vital to the WBA as we respond to the rapidly changing political, regulatory and educational needs of today's banking industry.

What's In It for You?

- ❖ Leadership opportunities
- ❖ A sense of commitment and accomplishment
- ❖ Visibility with the financial institution industry
- ❖ Networking with your peers
- ❖ Personal satisfaction
- ❖ Experience that can help your institution prepare for change.

As a volunteer leader in the Wyoming Bankers Association, you carry the vision not only of where your association is now but of where it is headed. It is the single greatest contribution you can make, and your association's greatest asset.

Who Is Eligible to Serve?

All officers and employees of WBA member institution are encouraged to apply. Applicants for WBA committee member positions will be contacted following the WBA Board of Directors' meeting in June.

What is Expected of WBA Volunteers?

Committee members are expected to be actively involved in committee projects and activities. Most committees meets just one to two times per year.

How Do I Sign Up?

Review the list of committees on the reverse side and indicate your area(s) of interest. Then return the completed form to the WBA by April 15th via fax at 307/638-5013; via mail at Wyoming Bankers Association, PO Box 2190, Cheyenne, WY 82003; via email at cheryl@wyomingbankers.com. Question, call 307/638-5008.

At the very heart of the Wyoming Bankers Association is the volunteer banker who serves on one of the WBA committees. These volunteers ensure that bankers have representation, consultation, and input throughout the year as the WBA works to serve the banking industry. The guidance received by WBA staff from these committees is absolutely vital to its success.
