

Erik D. Spurlin, Esq., LLM, CELA

Mr. Spurlin is a Certified Elder Law Attorney practicing in the areas of estate planning and administration and long-term care planning. Before establishing his firm in York County in 2017, Mr. Spurlin was a principal of the Elder Law Firm of Robert Clofine and an associate of Appel & Yost. Before that, he served as a judicial law clerk to the York County Orphans' Court. He is a member of the Pennsylvania Association of Elder Law Attorneys, the Elder Law Section of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, and the Estate Planning and Probate Section of the York County Bar Association. He serves as a board member to multiple sections of the York County Bar Association. He frequently presents seminars for the Pennsylvania Bar Institute, most recently presenting the following courses: Estate & Elder Law Symposium: Medicaid Crisis Planning (2019); Elder Law Update (2019); Practical Medicaid Planning (2018); Fixing Broken Trusts (2018 and 2016); Medicaid Basics (2017); Guardianship Updates and Trends (2016); Protecting Assets While Qualifying for Medicaid (2016); Estate Planning for the Alzheimer's Client (2015); and Guardianship Practice and Procedure (2015). Mr. Spurlin is a graduate of Arizona State University, where he received his bachelor's degree, summa cum laude, in political science, and master's degree, summa cum laude, in international relations. He earned his J.D., cum laude, from Temple University Beasley School of Law, where he also received his LL.M. (Master of Laws) in taxation, with distinction. During this time, he earned a graduate certificate in estate planning and was the sole recipient of the Joseph Price Memorial Award for Outstanding Achievement in Tax Law in 2010. Erik is a Pennsylvania native and lives in Dallastown, York County, with his wife and pets. In his spare time, Erik enjoys music, sports, and stargazing.